LushLovesLocal Aliwal Arts Night Crawl

Mars

Shak

Yllis

Presented by

LushLovesLocal is an ongoing movement started by Lush 99.5FM in December 2013 as part of the brand philosophy to market, support and develop creation, appreciation and engagement of original Singapore-made music. What initially started as a hashtag tagged on to local music playing on Lush now further comprises music curation, events and content. Search the hashtag on social to discover your local music community and check out the 50 Songs In 50 Days project on their YouTube page.

Catch two of Singapore's hottest young artists, along with the imitable Yllis, fresh after the release of the ISLANDS EP in June.

Mars 🌈🌈🌈 Kid-Friendly! 🌈🌈🌈

6.30pm The Mad Sailors, 24 Haji Lane

Sociology student Mars writes lyrics that combine life experience with emotions, guaranteed to bring the feels. Touted to be Singapore's own Lianne La Havas, this is one pint-sized powerhouse you don't want to miss.

Shak 🌈🌈🌈 Kid-Friendly! 🌈🌈🌈

8pm Outside 10 Bussorah Street

Shak'thiya, better known as Shak, is a homegrown singer songwriter inspired by a myriad of genres from blues to bossa, hip hop to folk. He is currently a resident at Singapore University of Technology and Design's Aria café.

Yllis

9.30pm Aliwal Street Carpark

Born in Singapore and now based between his home city and New York, Yllis explores the claustrophobia and frustrations of growing up in the rigid, capitalist island state. He does this through experimental electronic pop, melding wonky bass music and sino-grime influences with infectious vocal hooks.

Hari Raya Open House Aliwal Arts Night Crawl

Presented by 2pm-10pm, Malay Heritage Centre
Free admission

In the spirit of Hari Raya Puasa, the Malay Heritage Centre welcomes you to our annual Open House! In the day, learn about Singapore's history through dramatized and interactive tours in the Centre's permanent galleries. When dusk falls, soak in the festive atmosphere under a canopy of twinkling lampu lap-lip (decorative fairy lights) as you clap along to song, dance and comedic performances at the Concert Raya Gemilang. Don't forget to explore the special Raya Flea Market which will feature festive delicacies, traditional wear, hands-on craft activities, and fringe performances.

2pm-9pm
Raya Flea Market, MHC Lawn

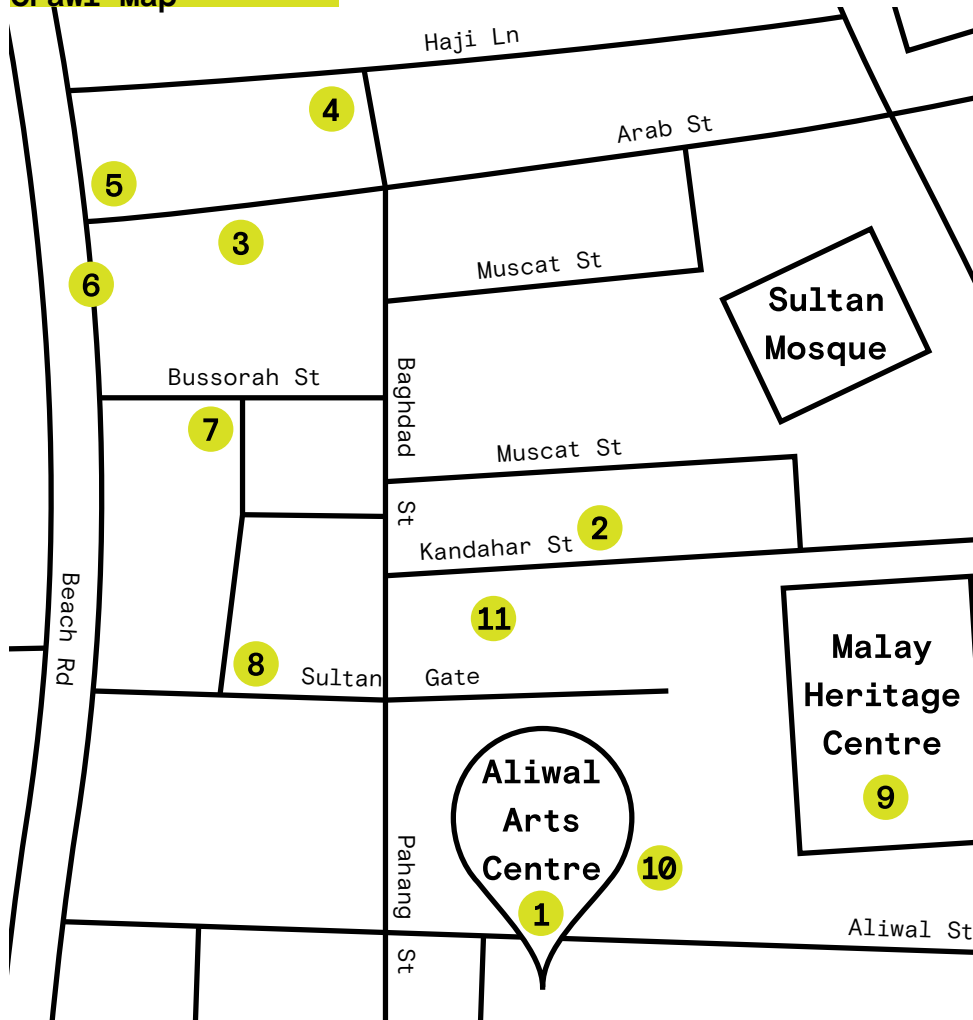

Hari Raya will not be complete without special festive delicacies and traditional wear. This special flea market will feature special craft items, Malay kueh, and activities for the family such as batik printing, Malay games and special fringe performances. There will be something on for all visitors.

8.30pm-10pm*
Concert Raya Gemilang, MHC Fountain

In the evening, the Malay Heritage Centre will entertain guests with song and dance items from the traditional to the early 70s. There will also be comic skits to reflect the more humorous aspects of how the community prepares for and celebrates Hari Raya over the years. This concert will entertain, excite and also tickle audiences.

*All performances are free for public. Please note that seats and refreshments are specially catered for invited guests only.

Queen of Sheba: Singapore Sidewalk A show by Kavita Issar Batra

30 June-28 August 2016
Wednesday to Sunday 2pm-7pm
Closed on Monday, Tuesday & Public Holidays
Free admission

Queen of Sheba encompasses photographs, monotypes and an oversized mixed media painting on canvas, which is an imprint of the Singapore sidewalk.

This exhibition focuses on artist Kavita's creative process of spotting, observing and collecting natural and urban elements on a morning walk. Sometimes, she is so mesmerized by an observation that the moment is captured through photography. Most of the time, Kavita composes montages by combining textures, forms and colours using flowers, leaves and other botanical treasures.
